Dear Tredegar Town Council

Thank you very much for the Aneurin Bevan commemorative plate, which is now in pride of place in my office (see the enclosed photograph).

As the plate reminds us, Bevan said that NHS was "extending to the population of Britain the benefits we had in Tredegar for a generation or more." As the birth place of our most beloved national institution – the Labour Party's greatest achievement – Tredegar will always hold a special place in the heart of our movement.

To be gifted this by Tredegar Town Council is therefore a great honour and I will treasure it. It will be a daily reminder to me and my team in the Leader's Office of the transformation the Labour movement can bring to people's lives when we achieve power and use it for the betterment of the many.

All the very best,

It was a wonderful gesture from a wonderful town that has given us all so much!
